

Sync Your Data

ownCloud is file syncing and sharing technology with a mission: put your data back under your control.

Solve hard problems

Seamless syncing and sharing between multiple devices is a hard problem. With C++, PHP, HTML5 and CSS we build a solution that has to be easy to use, scale perfectly, always work - and perform well. Have ideas on how? Join us!

Share your code

Getting code in ownCloud and to our millions of users is easy. All coding happens in github and our modular code base makes it possible to focus on a single piece of functionality.
